

Come and go with us
Come ride on our bus
We'll surprise you
We'll thrill you
We'll even occasionally shock you

It's always done, in fun
And you aren't the only one
Come be our friend
You'll have fun till the end
Memories of times and places
And lots of new faces

Life is too short to be serious
And it's more fun to be hilarious
Come with us
Come ride our bus
Let's meet some new friends
We'll keep them till the end.
